DIAMETRICAL CLAIMS OF POLITICAL RIVALS

Republican and Democratic Leaders Are Equally Confident of Ballot Victory Today

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES AT THEIR HOMES

Both Parties Claim New York State by About 100,000 Plurality—Officials to be Elected Are President and Vice-President, 33 United States Senators, 435 Members of the House of Representatives, 35 Governors—Three Women Are Running for Congress—Women Will Vote in Twelve States This Year—Nine States Are to Vote on Prohibition.

New York, Nov. 6.—On the eve of the presidential election general confidence in the result of the balloting tomorrow was expressed in the camps of the rival republican and democratic forces. Political workers had completed their tasks, their leaders had issued the usual final forecasts and nothing remained but the work of bringing out the vote and then getting news of the result.

Both Candidates at Their Homes.
Tonight the standard bearers of the leading parties remained quietly at their homes. President Woodrow Wilson at Shadow Lawn, and Charles E. Hughes at his hotel in New York. Surrounded only by immediate members of their families, the candidates plan to receive the election returns at their homes. Tomorrow Mr. Wilson will go to Princeton to vote at the old fire engine house near the Princeton University campus. Mr. Hughes will vote in a laundry on Forty-fourth street, New York, near his hotel headquarters.

Fair Weather Predicted.
The weather man has promised generally fair weather and moderate temperature in most parts of the country for election day. A forecast published today said this promised the coming out of a record-breaking vote.

Officials to be Elected.
Officials to be elected today are: President and vice president. Thirty-three United States senators. Four hundred and thirty-five members of the house of representatives. Thirty-five governors. Legislatures and other minor state offices.

Nine States Vote on Prohibition.
A number of states will vote on certain amendments, chiefly of local interests. Nine states, however, Idaho, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Maryland, Arkansas and California, will vote on the prohibition question, an issue that has loomed large on the political horizon for some years past. The Territory of Alaska will also vote on this question. In Arizona an amendment for the abolition of polygamy will be up for popular decision. Women's part in the presidential election is one of the outstanding features.

Women to Vote in Twelve States.
In one-quarter of the 48 states women have the vote this year. The twelve states are Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, Washington, California, Arizona, Kansas, Oregon, Nevada, Montana and Illinois. The women in the last named states have the vote for president this year for the first time. The interest political leaders take in this vote can be appreciated from the fact that the states involved have 91 electoral votes, a little more than one-sixth of the electoral college's total vote.

Three Women Running for Congress.
One woman, Miss Jeannette Rankin, of Montana, is running for congress on the republican ticket. If she is elected Montana will be the first state of the nation to send a woman to congress. The progressive of the First Colorado congressional district also nominated a woman, Hattie K. Howard, but she has since withdrawn.
"Miss Jeannette Rankin of Montana, is running for congress on the republican ticket and in California Mrs. Josephine Fernald, of San Francisco, is an aspirant for the congress as a democrat. If they are elected they will be the first women to win seats in the national house of representatives. The progressive of the First Colorado congressional district also nominated a woman, Hattie K. Howard, but she has since withdrawn.

Whitman and Seabury Made Final Appeals.
Neither Professes Any Misgivings Concerning the Outcome.
New York, Nov. 6.—With Governor Whitman and Senator Seabury, candidate for governor, making final appeals to the voters of this city, the New York state campaign closed tonight only a few hours before the polls opened. The head of each state ticket joined his campaign managers in professing serene confidence in the outcome of the balloting.

Because New York is considered a pivotal state in the presidential election, chief popular interest in tomorrow's voting centered in the contest between President Wilson and Charles E. Hughes. Voters will be called upon, however, to elect a complete state ticket in addition to governor and United States senator.
Forecasts tonight depended upon whether the person who made the prediction was a democrat or a republican. Both sides agreed that the tide would be turned for the national ticket by those who voted as progressives four years ago. The combined Taft and Roosevelt vote in 1912 was $45,580, as compared with $55,572 for Wilson. In Greater New York, where the republicans concede will return a democratic plurality this year, the Taft and Roosevelt vote together exceeded by 3,092 that cast for Wilson. While the republicans contend that the greater portion of those who supported Roosevelt four years ago will swing to Hughes this year, the democrats scoff at their claims. It was asserted at democratic state headquarters that a careful canvass of every county in the state indicates that serious inroads will be made by President Wilson upon the normal republican plurality up-state and that the democratic plurality in Greater New York will more than offset the republican lead down to the Harlem river.

MARSHALL PREDICTS THAT WILSON WILL CARRY OHIO
Closed Campaign Last Night in Coliseum at Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Predicting that the democratic party will be victorious at the polls tomorrow and pleading for support for President Wilson and his administration, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall closed the campaign here tonight in a rally in the Coliseum.
"President Wilson now needs your support more than ever," said Mr. Marshall. "You know what he has done for the nation. You also know that he will continue to work for the safety of the United States. You do not know what the other fellows will do if elected and that is why you should work all the harder for a certainty instead of permitting the nation to be ruled by a new set of men."
"A vote for Wilson means peace with honor and continued prosperity," Mr. Marshall declared. He predicted that President Wilson will carry Ohio.

ROOSEVELT DELIVERS USUAL ELECTION EVE ADDRESS
Urged His Friends and Neighbors to Vote Republican Ticket.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Theodore Roosevelt delivered his usual election eve address to his friends and neighbors here tonight, urging them to vote the republican ticket tomorrow. Referring to his campaign for Charles E. Hughes, he said:
"It makes no difference whether I have been on a trip to the River of Doubt, on a hunting trip or a political trip. I have to tell my neighbors about it."
Colonel Roosevelt predicted that the nation, Nassau county and Oyster Bay would "go republican."

HEAVY VOTE EXPECTED IN MASSACHUSETTS
Republicans Claim 75,000 Plurality, Democrats 20,000.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Political leaders agreed tonight that if the weather was fair tomorrow, as predicted, Massachusetts would poll the largest vote in its history. To his friends and neighbors here tonight, urging them to vote the republican ticket tomorrow. Referring to his campaign for Charles E. Hughes, he said:
"It makes no difference whether I have been on a trip to the River of Doubt, on a hunting trip or a political trip. I have to tell my neighbors about it."
Colonel Roosevelt predicted that the nation, Nassau county and Oyster Bay would "go republican."

Of Order Not to Save Survivors of German Submarines.

London, Nov. 6, 10:27 p. m.—The admiralty tonight in a published communique again denies that it ever issued an order to the survivors of German submarines need not be rescued. The communique states that the German press "is trying to make capital out of what they describe as a white ensign, long case, possibly in order to incite American opinion against Great Britain or as a pretext for an unrestrained submarine campaign."

The communique cites the alleged facts of the case, showing that a British auxiliary flying a neutral flag on September 24, 1915, approached a German submarine in the western channel, engaging in sinking a British merchantman. When within range the auxiliary hoisted a white ensign, fired a hand and sank the submarine and then rescued the crew of the merchantman from their boats. When this was done the second two of the submarine's crew who had climbed into a drifting boat.

The communique claims that the use of a neutral flag is a practice shown by the German practice in the case of the Moeve and in other instances and says that "nobody but a German submarine would have behaved so brutally on the lapse of a few minutes between the rescue of Britishers and Germans."

TAKING CENSUS OF COAL SUPPLY IN NEW YORK
To Determine Whether Speculators Are Taking Advantage of Public.

New York, Nov. 6.—A census of the coal supply in this city, to determine whether speculators are taking advantage of the public in certain sections, was begun by the police today. Its purpose, it was said, was to learn whether a coal shortage exists in some sections and a surplus in others and whether the supply might be regulated to relieve suffering in cold weather.
United States Attorney Marshall, District Attorney Swann and agents of the department are investigating the situation to learn if the present famine prices are caused by natural conditions or by an illegal agreement of dealers.
The police also expect to make their census to be able to testify as experts should investigations be started this week to reveal a conspiracy to raise the price of coal.

Polish Flag is Hoisted at Lublin

ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW KINGDOM IS PROCLAIMED

PLAY NATIONAL ANTHEM

Polish Flag was Hoisted Beside the Austro-Hungarian Colors on All Public Buildings.

Berlin, Nov. 6 (By Wireless to New York).—The establishment of the new kingdom of Poland also was proclaimed at Lublin in the palace of the governor general, according to a despatch from that city. The proclamation took place in the presence of the administrator general, the clergy of the diocese, deputies from all Polish associations, veterans of 1831, the vice president of the central relief committee and numerous officers.

Proclamation Read.
Accompanied by his associates, the governor general entered the room and read the proclamation. At its conclusion he said:
"The allied monarchs thus most solemnly guarantee the re-establishment of the kingdom of Poland. This fact cannot be any more overruled."

Polish Flag Hoisted.
He concluded with a cheer for Poland in the Polish language and was frantically applauded. At the same time the Polish flag was hoisted and the Austro-Hungarian troops rendered honors to it while the band played the national anthem, amid the shouts of an immense crowd before the palace. Two airplanes dropped a large number of Polish banners and the Polish flag was hoisted beside the Austro-Hungarian colors on all public buildings.

Vice President Stecki of the Polish relief committee, responding to the speech of the governor general, said: "With much reason the proclamation insists upon the necessity of taking into consideration the general political relations in Europe. We shall follow the path of peace, since we are convinced that on it depends the happy future of the Polish nation and the permanence and evolution of the state."

He added that the Polish nation will never forget the names of the monarchs who gave freedom to Poland. This declaration was met with applause. Later a Te Deum was held at the cathedral with the assistance of all the clergy.

The governor general decreed all or partial amnesty for all worthy of it.

The committee gave to the president a petition in which it was stated that "the gifts of the American people, while generous, are not commensurate to meet the demands of our brethren in distress, which are constantly increasing and it should be frankly admitted, are yet by no means proportional to our resources and are not an adequate expression of national unselfishness."

The committee left the petition under the impression that their request would be granted and that the president already had something of the kind in mind.
